

NATIONAL SPONSORSHIP PACKAGE

Connecting people to their potential.

Over 50 years ago, the outcome of children being removed from their homes due to abuse and neglect, teenage girls and boys desperate for guidance to get back on track, troubled teens in and out of juvenile justice system, youth with dreams who couldn't afford an education...all began to change. It began with one person, Jack Eckerd, who firmly believed that every child, teen, and adult deserves a second chance.

The Eckerd Connects Mission:

“Provide and share solutions that promote the well-being of children, young adults and families in need.”

This is Eckerd Connects' mission, Eckerd Connects' lifework. It is the essence of almost five decades of caring, and it is the foundation of Eckerd Connects' future.

Our Vision:

Having the opportunity to succeed is every child and young adult's birthright, and it is Eckerd connects' vision that for each this opportunity becomes a reality.

Today, it is our hope that you will help connect people to their potential through our programs that provide much-needed assistance to numerous children and families who often have nowhere else to turn in their hour of greatest need. You can help bring them into the Eckerd Connects family, where all people are valued and honored.

NATIONAL SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

The Eckerd Connects National Sponsorship program is designed to engage corporations who seek partnership with a non-profit that supports the well-being of a diverse culture of underprivileged children, youth and families. Eckerd Connects provides the opportunity for companies to align themselves with a respected non-profit organization recognized for commitment and success for providing second chances through 100+ programs across 20 states. A formal alliance is gained that works toward meeting financial goals of Eckerd Connects, and measured branding recognition to businesses. Partnership benefits help increase business value, brand visibility, enhances employee morale, loyalty and community support, all while helping children, youth, and adults reach their full potential.
